FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Who can appear to improve/ pass a failed or Absent subject in Re-sit Examinations sessions?

A: All regular, private and repeater candidates can sit to pass their Failed/ Absent subject(s) and/ or improve grades of their “Passed” subjects.

Q: Can a candidate register to take improvement examination of a “Passed” subject along with other “Failed” subjects simultaneously?

A: Yes. A candidate may take both the examinations in Re-sit Examinations sessions.

Q: After the improvement examination, which marks, original or improvement, would be considered on the marks sheet/ result slip?

A: After the improvement examination, best of the two scores (original and improvement) will be considered as “final result” and will reflect on the new marks sheet/ result slip and the certificate.

Q: How many subjects can a candidate opt for improvement purposes?

A: There is no limit. You may register to re-sit for more than one subject. However, the candidates may have both Part I and II examinations on the same day in morning and afternoon shifts.

Q: Is it compulsory to give Practical along with theory papers when re-sitting the examination for improvement purposes?

A: No. Candidates sitting for improvement examinations in subjects with a practical component are not required to register for both the theory and Practical. They may opt to register themselves to re-sit for only theory component, or Practical or both of a subject.

Q: Could I still improve marks if I graduated from SSC/ HSSC in any other years before?

A: This depends upon the year of the candidate's enrolment with AKU-EB. Enrolment is valid for four consecutive years. A candidate is eligible to sit examinations or improve their SSC/ HSSC grades during the validity of the enrolment period. After that, new enrolment has to be initiated.

Q: If a high achiever candidate sits in any forth coming examination, would it affect his/her achievement?

A: High achievers lists are based on Annual examination results, therefore, if a candidate is included in a high achievers list for any category, he/ she can re-sit in forth coming examinations and it would not affect candidates' existing/ prior achievement.

Q: If a candidate has appeared for a re-sit examination to improve his/ her marks, can he/she be included in the High Achievers list?

A: He/ she is eligible for subject-wise positions for those subjects for which he/she has not appeared for a re-sit. However, he/ she is not eligible for any group or overall positions that are awarded by AKU-EB. Improvement examinations CANNOT be used for the purpose of achieving positions

Q: Can I appear after issuing SSC/ HSSC Certificate from AKU-EB?

A: A candidate can appear during the validity of the enrolment period if he/ she surrenders his/ her original certificate issued by the board. After examinations, candidate can apply for new certificate by submitting the application form along with fee for revised result slip and certificate by requesting at examination.board@aku.edu. It is pertinent to note that the last examination session in which the candidate appeared will reflect on revised Certificate.

Q: Can I appear if AKU-EB has issued the migration Certificate?

A: As per policy, once the Migration Certificate has been issued by the Board, a candidate is no longer eligible to appear in any examination offered by AKU-EB. However, if candidate surrenders his/ her original migration certificate issued by the board, then, he/ she can sit for examinations. After the declaration of result, candidate can again submit the application along with fee for issuance of new migration certificate.

Q: Does the new result slip state a candidate improved marks in particular subjects or Failed subjects?

A: No. The privacy of its candidates is important to AKU-EB. The new result slip does not reflect that the candidate has taken extra examinations in particular subjects to improve grades or pass the subjects. It only states the last examination session in which the candidate appeared with best marks.

Q: How soon the marks sheet/ result slip will be awarded after examination sessions? We need to apply for universities/ colleges.

A: The marks sheet/ result slip is processed and awarded after two weeks of the announcement of results.
